

Probation – General Terms and Conditions

1. You will not violate a federal, state, or local law, or rule of probation or community sanction. You will notify the Probation Department within three (3) days of being arrested, summoned, or cited for any law violation in any jurisdiction inside or outside Jackson County or having any contact with law enforcement officers.
2. You will not operate a motor vehicle without a valid driver's license. Any vehicle owned or operated by you will be covered by personal liability insurance as required by law. If your operator's license is suspended or revoked you will diligently and progressively work toward the restoration of the resident driving privilege, unless otherwise ordered in writing.
3. You will keep your Probation Officer notified of your current address, phone number and your employer's name, address and phone number at all times. You will change your residence or employment only after receiving permission from your Probation Officer.
4. You will report to the Probation Office promptly at all dates and times as required.
5. You will not leave the State of Ohio without first receiving approval from your Probation Officer.
6. You will not purchase, own, possess, or have under your control any firearm, deadly weapon or dangerous ordinance as defined in Section 2923.11 of the Ohio Revised Code without written permission from the Chief Probation Officer or Judge.
7. You will not possess, purchase, sell, distribute, or use any: beverages containing alcohol, illicit drugs, harmful intoxicants, drug paraphernalia, or any controlled substances except by the prescription of a licensed physician.
8. You will submit to the search of your person, place of residence, automobile, telecommunications device including but not limited to electronic audio or video devices, cell phones, computers, tablets, recording devices, data storage devices, or any other property under your care or control to your Probation Officer or any other law enforcement official during your term of probation.
9. You shall submit to any testing for alcohol and/or drug use requested by a Probation Officer, Law Enforcement Officer or Jail Official and shall authorize that the results be forwarded to the Probation Officer. You understand that a positive result, failure to submit an adequate sample, or failure to appear for a drug screen will be considered a violation of Community Control. You will assume the cost of any testing.
10. You shall obtain a GED or high school diploma.
11. You shall work toward and obtain gainful employment.

12. You shall work toward and obtain independent housing.
13. You shall not participate in any medication assisted treatment programs (Suboxone, Subutex, Vivitrol, Methadone, etc.) without first obtaining approval, in writing, from your Probation Officer or the Judge. Participation in unapproved medication assisted treatment programming will be considered a violation of probation even with a valid prescription.
14. You will not enter into a residential rehabilitation program without permission, in writing, from your Probation Officer or the Court. Entering unapproved treatment will be considered a violation of probation.
15. You will not work directly or indirectly as an informant for any law enforcement agency or officer without the advanced written permission of the Chief or Deputy Chief of Probation, the Probation Officer, and the law enforcement officer in charge of the detail.
16. You shall obey all conditions of Community Control as ordered by the Court, Probation Department, Community Service Director, Probation Officer, or Community Service Officer.
17. You shall pay all fines, costs, supervision fees, reimbursements, and restitution as ordered by the Court.
18. You shall appear promptly and consistently to perform all assigned community service as directed by the Director of Community Service. Any community service performed outside court supervision must be pre-approved prior to submission for credit.
19. While on Probation you are restricted from visiting or scheduling a visit with any inmate incarcerated in any federal, state, or local detention facility without the expressed written consent of your Probation Officer, or the Deputy Chief of Probation.
20. Conviction of a felony, and/or imprisonment shall not be grounds for termination of misdemeanor probation. Your probation will be tolled (time stopped) during any period of incarceration. Your time will resume upon release and return to the jurisdiction of this court. Your probation will be extended based upon your length of your incarceration. You are required to report to the Probation Department within 72 hours of your release from incarceration.
21. Special Conditions: Conditions may be added by Probation Staff that are specific to your case. Any such conditions will be explained in detail to you at the time you sign the contract.
